

Native Texas limestone, southern pine, exposed structural steel, and ample glass coalesce in a confident, modern prototype building.

WWW.AECOLLAB.COM

LOCATION Various
 AREA 4,000 sf
 COST $1,000,000
 ARCHITECT Susman Tisdale Gayle

Retail

Bluebonnet Electric Cooperative
 Prototype Retail Building

New payment centers constructed in Lockhart, Brenham, Bastrop, Giddings, and Manor establish a consistent and contemporary corporate identity, grounded in the deep-rooted Central Texas heritage of the Bluebonnet Electric Cooperative. The prototypical design of these buildings will be used as a model for future retail and service facilities spread throughout the fourteen Texas counties that comprise the BEC service area.

