

Conceived and constructed to make as faint a mark on the landscape as possible, the bridge appears almost natural in its setting.

WWW.AECOLLAB.COM

LOCATION Austin, Texas
SPAN 180 ft
COST withheld at owner's request
ARCHITECT Andersson-Wise
Architects

This cable-stayed suspension bridge spans 180 feet across a deep, densely wooded ravine, providing pedestrian access between a private residence and a nearby Lake Austin boat house. The suspension cables double as bridge handrails, with prefabricated structural steel baskets supporting the bridge deck and utility lines below.

spocia

Martin Suspension Bridge